OME GROUNDS BRING LUCK TO BROOKLY

Coombs and Mays Both Forced to Retire

EDGE TO WEATHER

But It Was not Cold Enough to Keep Down the Crowd.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—With the battle for the premier baseball honors of the year transferred from Boston to Brooklyn today, the baseball enthusiasts of Greater New York flocked by thousands of Ebbets field to view the world series from new angle.

Brooklyn has sent a strong delega-tion to polo grounds in Harism the home of the Giants to witness post sea-son struggles in former years, but to-day saw a reversal of the process with the tide of travel turned toward Flatbush where sits the stadium oc-cupied by the president National

This picture, the first of the world series between the Boston Americans and Brooklyn Nationals, was taken in the fifth inning of the first game. Chief Meyers, former Giant catch er now with Brooklyn, is shown sliding to third base on his three-bagger. Meyers' terrific smash was one of the big sensations of the game. The score was tied at one to one and only one man was out when the Indian cracked the ball. The hit gave Brooklyn a fine chance to tie the score, but Meyers was stranded on third. Gardner is playing third base; Hank O'Day is the umpire. The picture also shows a part of the enormous crowd that packed Braves Field, the biggest ball park in the country.
